

Professor Nick Sotherton Director of Research

Game and Wildlife Conservation Trust

Garden Restaurant, Jersey Pottery on 12th May 2011

The evening will start at 7.00p.m with a glass of Champagne followed by a short presentation by Professor Nick Sotherton Director of Research for the Game & Wildlife Conservation Trust who will talk about the trusts work and how if funds are raised here it could benefit Jersey as well as the UK. If you would like to attend please let Robert Jones know on robert@jerseypotttery.com

Following the presentation (which is free to attend) Dinner is available in The Garden Restaurant at £35.00 per person in. For reservations please also email Robert.

Please look at the trusts website for further details of their work: www.gwct.org.uk/default.asp